

Community Service Award

The Fairbury Chamber of Commerce is looking for nominations for Community Service Award to be awarded at the Fairbury Chamber Banquet on Friday, February 2, 2018. If you know of someone who has contributed to the betterment of the community over a period of time they may be eligible for the community service award. The nominee should be a member of the community who has devoted a considerable amount of their own time and effort to the betterment of community and/or surrounding area. This should be done on a volunteer basis over a number of years. The services include but are not limited to educational, recreational or cultural activities. Active membership in service clubs, fraternal groups and religious or church organizations should be given consideration in addition to individual activities. Each elected and appointed positions on governmental bodies are also indicators of community services.

This award will be presented to the recipient at the Fairbury Chamber of Commerce Banquet, held on Friday, February 2nd at the Elks Lodge for an evening of good food and great entertainment.
